The Evolving Practice of Indigenous Relations

DR. FAY FLETCHER

WORKSHOP

Associate Professor
University of Alberta

Dr. Fletcher, Associate Dean Academic and Student Affairs in the Faculty of Extension at the University of Alberta, has focused on the integration of research and teaching with the intent of making adult education more accessible, relevant, and meaningful for Indigenous learners. Teaching and research relationships with colleagues from First Nations communities and Metis Settlement and Elder mentors have informed the development and delivery of local and international adult continuing education programs as well as Aboriginal youth life skills programs.
