MODERATOR

General Manager, Aboriginal Relations
Black Diamond Group

Born in Iqaluit, NU Jonathan has grown up living from coast to coast to coast across Canada. Professionally, he has been lucky enough to work in a variety of different roles which have included working in the non-profit, governmental and for-profit industries. He brings this well rounded background to his current role with Black Diamond where he is responsible for building and maintaining positive relationships with the communities that surround Black Diamond and their operations. Prior to Black Diamond Jonathan spent 4 years working with Aramark Remote Workplace Services in the position of Director, Aboriginal Relations. In addition to Chairing CFAR's Sponsorship Committee and serving on the Board of Directors, Jonathan is currently working toward acquiring his Citation in Indigenous Community-Industry Relations from the University of Alberta Faculty of Extension.

Married, he is the proud father of two (Oliver and Penelope) young children. Jonathan enjoys nothing more than the time he gets to spend with his young family.
