

TIM HEINS

MODERATOR

Manager, Community Engagement
Royal Camp Services Ltd.

Tim Heins was born and raised in Central Canada and spent most of his adult years in the Northwest Territories. In late 2004, Tim moved to Edmonton and joined Flint Energy Services Ltd (now AECOM) as the Manager of Aboriginal Community Engagement. He moved into his current role with Royal Camp Services in 2014 where he shares his considerable experience in the role of Manager of Aboriginal Community Engagement. Tim has been a member of CFAR since 2008 and is in his fourth year of service on the Board of Directors, first as a member at large and currently in the role of Vice-President. He is the Chair of the Governance Committee, an Advisor on the ICIR/ICE Committee, and a member of the Governance Committee. Tim brings a wealth of business and community experience from his service as General Manager in the Co-operative system in the NWT; as Economic Development Officer for the GNWT; Executive Director of The Deline Land Corporation in Deline, NT; Finance Manager for North-Wright Airways Ltd. and now, in his current role. Tim served as a Justice of the Peace in the NWT from 1988 to 1992 and participated with the Alberta Chamber of Resources as a member of the Aboriginal Programs Project from 2005 to 2013.

Tim and his wife, Lucie, recently completed phase one of a long time vision to pursue sustainable living practises by building their near net zero all electric home which won the 2015 Alberta Home Builders Green Home of the Year Award with Effect Home Builders.

Phase two is now in progress developing bio-intensive, organic food production and animal stewardship utilizing holistic management techniques.

Take a peak at their blog, The Chronicles of Aspen Acres, to see phase one learnings and follow along as they start into the next round of content.